Goleta Gets a Tequila Bar

NOV 15 • DRINK, WEB EXCLUSIVES

Here at SEASONS, we believe that there's no such thing as too much of a good thing—especially when it involves Margaritas. That's why we're so excited about the opening of Paloma Restaurant & Tequila Bar, coming to Goleta at 5764 Calle Real.

The new restaurant, dishing out authentic Mexican Cuisine with a modern and gourmet twist, will be open for lunch, dinner and weekend brunch ($6 mimosas anyone?), along with offering catering services and an impressive tequila selection, whether you prefer blanco over reposado or enjoy them all.

Menu items that we're certainly looking forward to, handcrafted by executive chef Ricardo Garcia (of Los Agaves): empanadas de camaron (shrimp-filled corn turnovers with mango habanero sauce), authentic chile relleno, enchiladas mole (topped with chocolate mole sauce and sesame seeds), chile en nogada (Paloma's signature dish of stuffed pasilla pepper with ground beef picadillo, walnuts and fruits topped with creamy walnut sauce and pomegranate seeds) and chipotle eggs Benedict (with spicy chipotle hollandaise sauce and house potatoes).

This welcome addition to the Goleta foodie scene already has us salivating. Be sure to head over to the new establishment soon.
